LAQUIPAI, Departamento de Química da Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade do Porto

Location Site: Hotel Solverde, beautifully situated at the Granja Beach, Oporto-Espinho

Participants: 17

Allan Astrup Jensen (Chairman)

John Holder (Secretary)

Maria Teresa Vasconcelos (Chair 7th FECS Conference)

Panayotis Siskos (Chair 8th FECS Conference)

Valery Petrosyan (Chair 9th FECS Conference)

Luciano Morselli (Chair 10th FECS Conference)

Toomas Tenno (Chairman of the new Subcommittee 'Water and Soil Chemistry and Pollution')

Jan Skramstad (Editor of the FECS WP/DCE 25 years Anniversary history booklet)

Sergio Facchetti (Editor: Who's Who in Environmental Chemistry in Europe)

Herman van Langenhove

Wilhelm Höflinger

Costas Michael

Fritz Frimmel

Sirpa Herve

Ramon Mestres

Raluca Mocanu

Almut Heinrich (Observer – ESPR managing editor)

Election of Secretary

John Holder has kindly agreed to his re-election for a new 3-year term.

8th FECS Conference on Chemistry and the Environment, Athens, 31 August to 4 September 2002

August 30 (Saturday): Division Meeting

August 31 (Sunday): Registration, Training Courses, Opening, Plenary, Get-Together

Preliminary Program

1. Air Quality and Exposure (Hartmut Frank, Herman van Langenhove)
2. Water and Sediment Quality and Treatment (Fritz Frimmel, Maria Teresa Vasconcelos)
3. Soil Quality and Remediation (Toomas Tenno, Costas Michael)
4. Anthropogenic Chemistry (Valery S. Petrosyan, John Holder)
5. Environmental Management (Allan Astrup Jensen, Sergio Facchetti)
6. Education in Environmental Chemistry (Uri Zoller, Miltiades I. Karayannis)
7. Olympic Games and the Environment (Panos Siskos, Ramon Mestres)
8. Conservation of Ancient Monuments (Luciano Morselli, Nikos Katsanos)

Program to be completed by spring 2001

Time Table

1st Announcement: by mid of September for the ESPR-FECS website and the ESPR-October issue.

2nd Announcement: October 2001.

Deadline for Abstracts: March 2002.

Deadline for the Abstract Issue: end of June 2002 (including preface, final list of abstracts, author index).

An electronic registration form will be provided at the ESPR-FECS website.

Abstracts

Length: 1 page and 1 additional page for background information (tables, figures, etc.).

Keywords: Additional keywords are requested for further topics and speakers.

Instructions for the preparation of abstracts will be provided.

Forthcoming Conferences

9th FECS Conference on Chemistry and the Environment, Moscow, 2003

Host: Valery Petrosyan

Working title: Environmental Stress in the Urban Environment

10th FECS Conference on Chemistry and the Environment, Italy, 2004

Host: Luciano Morselli

FECS-DCE Sponsored Events

- Second Atmospheric Reactive Substances (ARS) Conference, Bayreuth, 9-11 April 2001
- Conference on Marine Pollution in Sharm, Egypt (under discussion with Mohamed Tawfic Ahmed)

Subcommittees

- Education in Environmental Chemistry (Chairman: Uri Zoller)
- Air Chemistry and Air Pollution (Chairman: Hartmut Frank)
- Green and Sustainable Chemistry (Chairman: Allan Astrup Jensen)
- New: Water and Soil Chemistry and Pollution (Chairman: Toomas Tenno)

Steering Committee:

Allan Astrup Jensen
 Maria Teresa Vasconcelos
 Panayotis Siskos
 John Holder

Forthcoming cooperation between FECS-DCE and ESPR

1. Post-conference report from the 7th FECS Conference for the ESPR-October issue (submission: mid-September).
2. Selected papers from 7th FECS Conference to be published as a series of articles in ESPR (peer-reviewed).
3. Promotion campaign for the 8th FECS Conference beginning with the ESPR-October issue and via the website.
4. Abstracts from the 8th FECS Conference to be published as ESPR-Special Issue.
5. Continuation of the FECS-DCE Reports on Environmental Chemistry in Europe. Valery Petrosyan has agreed to contribute a report from Russia (Division Meeting Bordeaux, October 1999).
