The easy way to submit a properly formatted manuscript

JSS – Journal of Soils and Sediments
Protection, Risk Assessment and Remediation
(JSS – J Soils & Sediments)

Associated Journal of SedNet (Demand-driven, European Sediment Research Network)
Cooperating Journal of IUSS (International Union of Soil Sciences)

JSS is a peer-reviewed journal. All contributions will be reviewed by a minimum of two specialists

Editors-in-Chief:

Eric de Deckere

Department of Biology, University of Antwerp, Universiteitsplein 1, B-2610 Wilrijk, Belgium (deckere@uia.ua.ac.be)

Submission of papers:

Before submitting the manuscript, the authors are requested to send an abstract by E-mail to the Editors-in-Chief (deckere@uia.ua.ac.be; th-knacker@ect.de; koerdel@ime.fraunhofer.de; wjgm.peijnenburg@rivm.nl), to the Co-Editors (osterb@edv1.boku.ac.at; wblum@edv1.boku.ac.at; winfried.blum@boku.ac.at) (joerg.matschullat@ioez.tu-freiberg.de; turlough.guerin@shell.com.au) and to the Publisher Editor (a.heinrich@ecomede.de).

The abstract should present the following structure:

1. Goal, Scope and Background
2. Methods (or Main Features)
3. Results and Discussion
4. Conclusion
5. Recommendation and Outlook

We shall then either invite you to submit the complete paper or discuss further details with you which we think may prove to be necessary.

When submitting the paper, please provide it in hard copy and electronic format. Figures and tables should be embedded, whereas the final submission requires text, figures, tables, list of figure legends and table captions to be stored as separate files. Even the first submission must not be a mere draft but has to be formatted in accordance with the instructions for authors.

Once invited to submit the paper, please send one hard copy of the manuscript with disk to

To authors from non-English language countries:

To have the best possible pre-requisitions for the review process, please ask a native speaker to check the quality of the English language and, if necessary, to improve it before you submit the complete paper.

Submission of the final version:

If you do not have the opportunity of a language check, we can offer you this service for a price of Euro 17,90 per hour. Average value, depending on paper length and language quality, is 1,5 to 2 hours.

Review process:

Please submit names and complete addresses (including E-mail addresses) of three suitable experts. We select one of them and another from our advisory boards.

Manuscript Requirements

Disk:

MS-Word for Windows, Office 97 format

Internet index of authors:

<http://www.scientificjournals.com/sj/db/authorindex.htm>

We request that you send us your Photo (TIF, GIF or JPG), as well as a brief Text in which you present your current interests and activities (running text, no tables). This text may also appear as a footnote or endnote to your printed article (should adequate space be available).

The Ten Golden Rules

1. In the head of your manuscript, please note:
Date of submission, number of pages, figures, tables, diagrams, formulas, equations
2. Do not make any use of indentations and refrain from centering your text; instead, format your text in a block format.
3. Line-spacing: 1.5
4. Text size: 10 pt
5. Format: Times New Roman
6. Use no automatic syllabifying and also make no use of hard hyphens (dashes).
7. Place page numbers at the end of each page.
8. Quotation marks:
Only use straight (no typographical) and single quotation marks.
Double quotation marks should only be used for quotations.
9. Do not make use
 - of italics excluding species' names,
 - of underlining words excluding E-mail and internet addresses,
 - of capitals excluding acronyms (like JSS), and
 - of small capitals (JOURNAL OF SOILS AND SEDIMENTS).
10. Do not make any use of active documents including E-mail and internet addresses.

Length of the articles:

1 printed page of text is equivalent to 2 pages of manuscript (10 pt Times New Roman, 1.5 line-spacing, 2 cm of margin upper, lower, right, left)

- Research articles (full papers): up to a maximum of 8 pages of text
 - Brief communications: up to a maximum of 4 pages of text
- Discussions and Commentaries: up to a maximum of 6 pages of text
 - Review articles: up to a maximum of 10 pages of text

If more space is needed, please separate the paper into two parts to be published in subsequent issues.

From the Top through the Bottom of the manuscript

- Title: Formatted with a left margin using only upper-/lower-case letters. Formulate an informative title which is easy to grasp. If necessary, separate the title into a title and subtitle.
- Authors: Formatted with a left margin using only upper-/lower-case letters. Please include the Christian name, initial(s) of the middle name(s), and surnames of all authors. The complete addresses should be found below this author line. In articles with more than one author, the corresponding author, including his/her E-mail address, should appear directly below these addresses. Use Arabic numerals to associate the authors with their addresses.
Example:

Lara J. Hansen¹, David L. Fabacher² and Robin Calfee²

¹ Section of Evolution and Ecology, University of California, Davis, California 95616, USA

² Columbia Environmental Research Center, Biological Resources Division, United States Geological Survey, 4200 New Haven Road, Columbia, Missouri 65201, USA

* Corresponding author (lara.hansen@wwfus.org)

Note: The authors' names in the author line, in the text as well as in the references must appear in upper-/lower-case letters (no small capitals or capitals)

- Abstract: Please separate the abstract into the following sections, which can be adapted to suit the particular type of article (e.g. original article, reviews, commentary, etc.):
 1. Goal, Scope and Background,
 2. Methods (or Main Features),
 3. Results and Discussion,
 4. Conclusions,
 5. Recommendations and Outlook
- Keywords: Please cite up to a maximum of 10 keywords, listed alphabetically and separated by semicolons.
- Text: The text should be formulated tightly. Avoid repetitions. Known facts should only be referred to through the use of references. Make divisions in the text through the use of meaningful headlines. A good subdivision of the contribution is desired. The sections must be numbered sequentially and decimally (using Arabic numerals), besides of Introduction, Acknowledgements, List of References.
- List of References (must not be formatted as endnote): Two different forms of presenting references are possible:
 1. Numerical (in brackets) and in the sequential order of their appearance in the text. In the text, only the appropriate number is to be found (also in brackets).
 2. Alphabetical: The surname of the author and the year of publication – without a comma between – are found in the text and placed in parentheses. Multiple reference sites are separated from one another through the use of commas.

Citations from journals must include the author's name with initial of the first name, the year of publication, the title of the article, the title of the journal, volume number and the number of the first and last page of the specific article. Please use upper-/lower-case letters for the authors' names. For the title, use either upper or lower case letters, not both versions. For the title of the journal, please use the official abbreviation through the whole list of references or use the full titles (not both versions). Example:

Heinonen P, Paasivirta J, Herve S (1986): Periphyton and mussels in monitoring chlorohydrocarbons and chlorphenols in watercourses. Toxicol Environ Chem 11, 191–201

Nevalainen T, Koistinen J (1990): Model Compound Synthesis for the Structural Determination of New Unknown Planar Aromatic Compounds Originating from Pulp Mill. Organohalogen Compounds 4, 361–364

Note:

1. the initials (without a dot) follow the surnames
2. The authors' names are to be separated by commas
3. the journals are abbreviated without a dot
4. there is no dot at the end of the references

- Tables and Figures: Please include a separate, but common file with table captions and figure legends. Number (Arabic numerals) all of the tables and figures with the respective numbers as they are to be found in the text.

Tables:

1. Please use the table function available with Word. Set no tab stops
2. Width: 8.5 or 17.5 cm
3. Do not use any shadowing except for the purpose of making differentiations
4. Fonts (typeface): Helvetica or Arial
5. Note that references to tables should be marked with lower-case letters (do not use numbers or asterisks)
6. Use no frames or double lines; instead, a line above and below the table and lines within.
Use a line-size of 0.5 pt

Figures (line drawings):

1. Please provide figures in high resolution (300-600 dpi):
TIF, GIF, JPG, PPT, EXCEL, or figures inserted into WORD texts
Line-size: 0.5 pt
Width: 8.5 cm or as wide as is absolutely necessary

2. Lettering in the figure:
Helvetica or Arial. Please make no use of unusual fonts (typefaces).
It is merely important that the text can be read easily.

3. Colors must be altered to shades of gray (gray scales).
Color reproduction is possible, although it will require a charge by the authors for the additional cost of printing.
The particular rates for this process may be obtained on request.

4. Shadowing should only be used to accentuate important contents and not for the purpose of design.

- Footnotes are to be numbered sequentially (Arabic numerals)
- Formulas and equations: All chemical formulas and mathematical equations are to be numbered sequentially.
- Abbreviations: Abbreviations are used according to the regulations of the Chemical Abstracts Index Guide. In the event of special abbreviations, please include a list of 'Abbreviations' or a 'Glossary' at the end of your article, which includes all abbreviations and explains all dimensions.
- Units: Use only metric units (SI) and some other units listed in ISO 1000. Examples of such additional units, not belonging to SI, are hectare (ha), litre (= dm³) (l, L), day (d), hour (h), minute (min), km/h, tonne (=Mg) (t), Wh and its multiples, as kWh, MWh, GWh (only in order to distinguish electrical energy from other forms of energy), decibel (dB), mol/l or mol/L (= mol/dm³), electron volt (eV) and its multiples, as keV, MeV, GeV. The degree Celsius (°C) belongs to SI with the definition that zero degree Celsius is equal to (exactly) 273.15 K.

Online-First publications:

Until the articles are published in the printed version of the journal, they will first be made available in the Online-First version of JSS

<http://www.scientificjournals.com/onlinefirst/jss/>

PDF-files, Reprints, free journal copies:

The authors can order the final PDF data files
(in high resolution and with the actual number of pages)
to a price of Euro 20.00.

The PDF can be printed and distributed for personal use only.
The digital distribution of the PDF data files is not permitted.

Should the PDF data file be published in a Website, the logo of the journal must be placed beside it along with the following statement: Courtesy of JSS – J Soils & Sediments, ecocom publishers.

A link of the logo with the www.scientificjournals.com Website must also be ensured.

Reprints

(minimal number: 50 copies)
may be ordered (see Reprints, www.scientificjournals.com) and billed (you will receive an invoice).

Author's copy:

Each author will receive a copy of the printed issue in which his/her article appears.
